

GIRLSTEM

Design Lab is a camp that encourages girls to design, build, and test a prototype solutions to engineering challenges. They explore engineering challenges around building construction, digital programming and electronic circuit building activities. In the process, they learn teamwork, presentation, and leadership skills while building their confidence and breaking gender stereotypes.

- Ages 9 to 12 year old girls
- August 7 – 11, 2016 | 9 AM - 4PM
